FESTIVAL OF CHILDREN FOUNDATION PROUDLY ANNOUNCES MEMBER ORGANIZATIONS IN ALL 50 STATES

Mountaineer Boys & Girls Club in Morgantown, West Virginia latest to benefit from Festival of Children Foundation's free programs and services.

July 12, 2012 (Costa Mesa, CA) - Festival of Children Foundation, a Costa-Mesa, California-based children's nonprofit has achieved true national status, by now supporting over 460 member organizations in all 50 states. The latest nonprofit organization to become a member is the Mountaineer Boys & Girls Club in Morgantown, West Virginia.

There is no cost for children's charities to become a member organization of Festival of Children Foundation, but certain criteria must be met:

- The organization must be a registered 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization that has held this registration for a minimum of 5 years.
- The organization must be located within the United States, and primarily serving constituents in the United States.
- The organization must exist primarily to serve children and families.
- The organization must offer services in one or more of the following categories: Arts & Culture, Education, Environment, Health & Wellness, and/or Social Services.

"We're delighted to welcome the Mountaineer Boys and Girls Club of Morgantown, West Virginia to our esteemed roster of member organizations. The power of Festival of Children Foundation lies in our ability to bring charities, companies, organizations and individuals together and use the strength of our numbers to effect change. We proudly offer our programs at no cost so that our member charities can dedicate more funds to directly improving and enriching the lives of youth and families in their communities. Their approved application makes them part of what is now a truly national network," said Sandy Segerstrom Daniels, Founder & Executive Director of Festival of Children Foundation.
